Numb. 7186.

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, October 27. 1724.

London, October 27.

Yesterday arrived the Mail from Holland.

Naples, October 10.

THERE has been a Silver Mine, and another of Lead, discovered very lately in the Mountains of Calabria, and Proof has been made of both, whereby it is found that there will be a great deal of Profit: Upon this the Government has sent Galley-Slaves to work therein. On Sunday last was published here a Brief from the Pope, by which he grants plenary Indulgence and Remission of Sins to all such as shall observe what is therein prescribed; and among other things, to pray for an Union among Christian Princes; the Extirpation of Heresy; and the Exaltation of Holy Mother Church. On the 5th was published in our Cathedral Church a new Brief from the Pope, by which all those that shall kneel down at Noon, and in the Evening, at the Sound of a Bell, and recite the Prayer that begins with these Words, Angelus Domini, and shall say likewise three Ave Maria's, shall obtain a Hundred Days Indulgence for every Time, a full Indulgence once a Month, and a Pardon for all their Sins on any Day they shall pitch upon to confess themselves, partake of the Sacrament, and pray, as above.

Vienna, Oct. 14. His Imperial Majesty has resolved, upon the Request of the City Trapani in Sicily, to settle a Trade there with Barbary, and to assign an Island on the Coast, near the Castle of Colombara, to serve for a Magazine of their Goods and Merchandizes; and the better to carry on this Trade, the Town of Mazarra, and other neighbouring Places, are to obey the Senate of Trapani. Upon Advice that the Deputy of Tripoli, with his numerous Retinue, is set out from Venice, in order to come hither, M. Talman, his Majesty's Secretary of the Oriental Tongues, has been sent to the Frontiers with a Commissary to receive him, and to defray his Charges in his Way hither. It is said, that several Conferences have been held at Court about the Emperour's Project to erect the Kingdom of Hungary into an Electorate, in behalf of the Hereditary Prince of Lorrain, and that they were much divided in their Sentiments on that Head, some maintaining that it was very practicable for the same Reasons which prevailed when the Kingdom of Bohemia was made an Electorate; but others represented the Difficulties that would arise in case the Emperour should die without Male Issue, especially if the Hereditary Prince of Lorrain should marry the eldest Archduchess, who is the only Heir of the States of Austria, whereby the two Electorates of Bohemia and Hungary would fall to one, which is against the Constitutions of the Empire; but the former replied, that in such a Case the Electoral Dignity might be taken away from the Kingdom of Bohemia.

Cambray, Oct. 23. There has been no Conference held here since the 13th, and in all Appearance there will be none till the Return of the Expresse which the Plenipotentiaries have sent to their respective Courts about the Affair of Parma. M. de St. Contest, Ambassador Plenipotentiary of France, returned on the 16th from Valenciennes, whither he has made a Trip. Count Windisgratz, Ambassador Plenipotentiary of his Imperial Majesty, is making great Preparations for celebrating on the 4th and 10th of next Month the Festivals of St. Charles and St. Elizabeth, whereof the Emperour and Empress bear the Names.

Hague, Oct. 31. M. Amerong who was to have gone with the Deputation to the Province of Friesland and Groeningen, being taken ill, the other Deputies set out from hence the 28th Instant. The States of Holland separated the 27th, and are to meet again the 14th of next Month; when they will resume their Deliberations on the Project for augmenting the Troops of this State; but 'tis thought that in taking their final Resolution upon it, they will be principally determined by the Report which the forementioned Deputies shall make to them.

Falmouth, Oct. 22. This Day came in the Enmity and Sarah, both from Newfoundland; Warren from London; and William and Thomas, both for Cork from Topsham.

Plymouth, Oct. 23. This Day came in the St. Peter and St. John, both from Newfoundland; Benjamin from Malaga; and His Majesty's Ship Blandford from Carolina.

Deal, Oct. 25. No Ship in the Downes.

Gravesend, Oct. 24. Passed by since my last the following Ships, viz. Lady and Elizabeth from Amsterdam; James from Norway; Katherine from Barbadoes; Charles and Elizabeth from Hamburgh; John and Mary from Virginia; Edward from Ostend; and Charles from Bremen.

London, October 26.

It is advised from Cambridge, That a Grace hath passed the Senate there, giving Leave to Mr. Chappelow Fellow of St. John's College and Arabick Professor in that University, to publish a new Edition of Dr. Spencer de Legibus Hebræorum; which will be very much enlarged from Dr. Spencer's Manuscripts given to that University by his Grace Thomas late Lord Archbishop of Canterbury; and that in a short time Proposals will be printed for publishing that Work.
